

Going Away

© 2015 Bob Sturgill - BMI

She tiptoes out the bedroom through the hallway
Down the stairs and out the kitchen door
Quiet as a mouse she hits the highway
What lies up ahead she's not so sure

Yet she's going away
Going to stay
She's never coming back
She don't care to see that town again
She just wants to see what comes up 'round the bend

A stop in DC proves to be so tempting
Life is fast and loose inside the loop
The people and the place seems so exciting
Till she wakes and finds that she's been duped

So she's going away
Going to stay
She's never coming back
She don't care to see that town again
She just wants to see what comes up 'round the bend

LEAD

Yes she's going away
Going to stay
She's never coming back
She don't care to see that town again
She just wants to see what comes up 'round the bend

She heads on down to Charleston Carolina
Slips into that southern style of life
But that travelling feeling just keeps getting stronger
She don't want to be no cotton farmers wife

So she's going away
Going to stay
She's never coming back
She don't care to see that town again
She just wants to see what comes up 'round the bend
She don't care to see that town again
She just wants to see what comes up 'round the bend